

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS PAID OUT FOR ADDITIONAL COUNSEL DURING WALTER WELCH'S TERM OF OFFICE

Campaign Manager For Present District Attorney Is Besieged With Questions on Reason

ISSUES EMPTY WORDED EXCUSE

According to stories emanating from Welch headquarters the taxpayers of the county are inquiring of the Welch campaign manager in regard to the expenses of the Office of District Attorney during the present term. According to the statement issued publicly last week no hard and fast figures were given the people in return for the information. They asked for bread and were given a stone.

The Progress has never made a profession of giving the Court House news but it does go in pretty strong for printing articles of public information and news in answer to inquiries. To satisfy the demand of the taxpayers who have been unable to get this information through the regular channels we have procured the following statement from the records at the Court House and present them, together with editorial comment on Page 2, for the information of our readers who have not yet made up their mind who to vote for next November 6th for District Attorney.

Following you will find a list of the cases in which additional attorneys for the Commonwealth have been employed at the request of the District Attorney. The spelling of the defendants names is probably incorrect, but it is the way the list appears on the records.

Commonwealth vs. Huff (second trial) 2 attorneys for Commonwealth	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Alick, 2 attorneys	$300.00
Commonwealth vs. Acritilla, 1 attorney	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Thom, 1 attorney	$300.00
Commonwealth vs. Specialas, 1 attorney	$100.00
Commonwealth vs. Cmo, 2 attorneys	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Hastin, 2 attorneys	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Mastman, 2 attorneys	$300.00
Commonwealth vs. Rappack, 1 attorney	$20.00
Commonwealth vs. Cato, 2 attorneys	$300.00
1915
Commonwealth vs. Palleritti, 1 attorney	$200.00
1916
Commonwealth vs. Allen & Williams, 1 attorney	$500.00
Commonwealth vs. Denney, 1 attorney	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Kittanning Brewing Co., C. M. Mead Co., Joe Jackson and other defendants, W. C. Pentz Asst. District Attorney	$200.00

In this case the prosecutions were brought by County Detective Jeffries. The District Attorney employed W. C. Pentz, presumably because of Pentz's familiarity and ability in cases involving violation of liquor law. Mr. Pentz appeared at preliminary hearing at DuBois and all defendants were bound over to Court. After some time a proposition of settlement was offered by A. L. Cole, Attorney for all defendants. This proposition involved an acceptance of plea of guilty made by one Hyman Mayzie, a Jew who worked for some $60.00 a month for C. M. Mead Co., being one of their solicitors, who was also alleged to be connected with Joe Jackson of Weedville. The proposition was to accept the plea of guilty, suspend sentence over Mayzie, and a lump sum paid to the county, totaling some $1200.00 which included the costs, all other cases to be not pressed or marked settled. The matter was brought up in open court, and Mr. Pentz who had been appointed Asst. District Attorney by Welch strenuously objected to enter a nol pro in cases other than Mayzie. Welch overruled Pentz and agreed to settlement which was consummated.

Malcolm Cox Hears Thayer March Played by Crack Infantry Band

Writes Letter of Congratulations to Well Known Local Composer, Prof. H. Clark Thayer

Editor Clearfield Progress:
Dear Sir:—I ask space in your valuable paper for the following little article which will serve three purposes in one. First it will demonstrate how really small this great country of ours is, in that every section is kept in close touch with every other section by some such little thing or incident as this tale will unfold. Second, because Clearfield, tho small, as compared with New York, Paris, London or Chicago, covers a great deal of territory. Third, because the incident to us was simply another illustration of the old story about the fellow who wanders far from the old home and friends and goes into ecstasies when he unexpectedly runs across even a dog from home.

Judge of my more than pleased surprise when I picked up the Lawton paper last week and cast my eagle eye over the following announcement:

Lawton people are to have an opportunity to hear the famous 134th Infantry band. Colonel Hosington has consented to allow the band to give a concert between 3 and 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the park at the court house.

The band, which is an organization of 30 pieces is directed by Chief Musician G. G. Beeson, and not only is famous as a musical organization but is noted for the large number of soloists it contains.

The following is the program which will be given Sunday afternoon:

LaFollette Wants Facts Before He Replies

Asks Senatorial Committee for Names of Witnesses in Case

Washington, Oct. 16.—Senator LaFollette today called upon the Senate sub-committee investigating his loyalty and peremptorily demanded that he be furnished with the full charges against him, the names of the unfriendly witnesses and the documents in support of the accusation. After delivering this message in the form of a letter which he handed to Chairman Pomerene, LaFollette said "Good morning" and left. The committee went into executive session.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Hearings in the LaFollette investigation were ended today. The Wisconsin Senator has refused to acknowledge his alleged disloyal statements made in St. Paul. Chairman Pomerene declared following an executive session, that the sub-committee would not hold any more hearings, considering the LaFollette expulsion but would get information from other sources including the state department. He will gather evidence and report it to the December session of Congress.

Battery Park March H. Clark Thayer

I at once carried the news to Austin, and we decided forthwith to invite all the fellows in our squad to the concert as a sort of theatre party or guard of honor for that program, or the—to us—major portion of it; that last number, if you have not already tumbled

The 134th Regiment Band was formerly the Missouri National Guard and is a crackjack and it was a pleasure to listen to it and the home associations of Prof. Thayer's "Battery Park March" made the closing number the piece de resistance of the afternoon.

Please tender our congratulations to Prof. Thayer, because we want him to know that he put Clearfield on the map out here and that Austin and myself took a great deal of satisfaction in saying to all the boys, "That piece was written by a man I know well, why he's from my home town; sure, Battery Park March, by Prof. H. Clark Thayer." It brought old Clearfield right there on the green.

Austin and myself are still together, and intend to stick till all is over. We leave Fort Sill before November 1st. Where we go we know not, but we are very anxious to go at that, and trust to luck.

Sincerely yours,

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

The following letter is from James Emigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Emigh of Moundsdale, Pa., who writes from "Somewhere in France."

Somewhere in France, September 20, 1917

Dear Mother and All:

I am still living and well and have just about completed my journey. I have enjoyed my trip fine and never was sea sick a day.

How is everyone at home? We are safe at last. We can see land and everybody is crazy to get off the boat.

I would liked to have seen you before I left, but it was impossible. I expect to be back in a few months, so please don't worry about me, for I am alright. Did you receive the picture and money? I have signed an allotment of $20 a month to be sent to you. Has my Liberty Loan bond been sent home from Akron, O., yet? If not please hunt it up. Write for it at the Akron Savings and Trust Co.

I suppose you thought I was never going to write but I wrote as soon as I could. I will write again in a few days when I get my bearings. Has any one been called to colors around home? We are in the forts now.

You can address my mail to The American Expeditionary Force, via New York, Co. K, 23rd Inf.

I will write every week and want you to do the same. Will close for this time with love to all.

The major part of the yards were saved.

Many Large Mines Idle And Government Will Have to Interfere

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 16.—Without the sanction of the state officers and against the wishes of the United States government several thousand miners in the central and southern Illinois districts today walked out because the fuel administrator at Washington had thus far failed to increase the wages of the miners in connection with the increase in the operators' price. Easily Swamped Boys From City Of Altoona by Superior Playing

C. H. S. gave a fine exhibition of clean football on Saturday afternoon when they met Altoona at the Driving Park. Because of scholastic standing several of the players were not in the game but had they been in their regular places there is little doubt that the score would have been a repetition of the Ridgway game.

School authorities are insisting more than ever that the scholastic standing of the players be up to standard because they believe that the success of athletics depends upon this corner stone. A brief review of schools who have not done this gives conclusive evidence that in the course of a few years they will be eliminated from the athletic map.

The members of the team are to be congratulated on the clean game they played. The visiting team outweighed our men five to ten pounds but the speed of our interference baffled the size of the visitors. The Altoona boys, however, showed plenty of persistence, snap and straight football. Those deserving special mention from Altoona are Captain Saunders, Crowley, Kelly and Mortgart. Among the stars of C. H. S. were Pooler, Robinson, Boag, Dunn, Cochrane, Dufton and Collins.

The next game will be played next Saturday at Clearfield when Lock Haven Normal team visits here and the game will be started at 2:30 sharp.

BELL COMPANY SUBSCRIBES

The American Telephone & Telegraph Company and its Associated Companies, forming the Bell System, announce a subscription, in behalf of themselves and their employees, for $5,000,000 of the Second Liberty Loan. This subscription is to be allotted to localities, or sections of the country, as nearly as may be, in proportion to the quotas assigned by the Treasury Department to the various Federal Reserve Districts, so that each such District will get credit for its proportionate share of the total sum. The actual subscription will be made in each locality by the Associated Company operation in such locality.

There is also announced the adoption of a plan whereby employees of the companies above mentioned may purchase Liberty Bonds through those companies, paying for them in weekly or monthly installments, by deductions from pay.

DUBOIS MEN STRIKE GAS

Sykesville, Oct. 15.—A 100,000 foot daily gas producing well has just been drilled in here by the Sykesville-DuBois Oil & Gas Co. It is now being tubed that the gas supply may be turned into the lines, which are located but a short distance from the well, within a very few days.

This is the second well to be brought in by this concern during the present summer, and the members of the firm are congratulating themselves that none of their efforts thus far have been failures. The new well is by no means as good a producer as the one which came in four months ago which is now making about 600,000 feet daily, but the capacity of the two wells combined is such that the town of Sykesville need have no fear of a gas shortage for a long time to come.

HEAVY DAMAGES ASKED

Amsterdam, Oct. 16.—A sensation has been created in Germany and Austria because of an attack by Austrian Foreign Minister Czernin on Chancellor Michaelis, according to a dispatch to the Deutsche Zeitung today. The dispatch declared that Czernin had asked Michaelis to state German peace terms urging concessions in the west. Michaelis' reply was vague. Whereupon Czernin declared it was "futile to negotiate with Michaelis further inasmuch as clearness of expression and frankness are most essential." A heated discussion had been aroused by the attack in political circles in the Teuton countries.

Allege Striking Employees Are Influenced by German Sympathizers

Pittsburgh, Oct. 16.—Officials of the Pittsburgh Railways Company today charged that the trouble among the employees was due to a "wide-spread German plot to cripple munitions works." The trippers are early and late cars which carry thousands of munitions workers to plants.

"The Guilty Flee Where No Man Pursueth" Explains Statement

Welch Campaign Manager Puts Out Empty Words In Answer to Demand For Court House News

Last week one day District Attorney Welch's campaign manager acknowledged having heard from several parts of the county from taxpayers who were interested in some phases of Court House news in addition to that transpiring in the Commissioner's Office. In fact he had heard so much that he deemed it wise at that time to attempt to forestall any further criticism by a verbal whitewash of the business of the Office of District Attorney. Yesterday the laboriously written statement, excuse, explanation or whatever we might call it, came to our attention and we rather thought that the busy campaign manager was "seeing things" or that he "saw handwriting on the wall" and realized that sooner or later he would have to do some explaining to Mr. Taxpayer who he would have believed that the only place of iniquity in the Court House is in the Commissioner's Office.

A Bee Hiving Game.
The erstwhile campaign manager sought to handle this campaign much in the same manner that an apiarist hives a swarm of bees. "In this little game let the voters take the place of the bees," said he. "I as campaign manager will be the apiarist and when I start beating my pans and making the noise on the Commissioner's side of the Court House, the bees will be attracted to that side of the hive and a bee will be allowed to get a look in at the honeycomb on the other side of the hall." The game started about a year ago. There has been much beating of pans and other forms of noise and a few bees have followed the apiarist but now they have started to wander away from the hive and from different parts of the county they are buzzing in the campaign manager's ears the natural query, Why not look into Court House matters on the other side of the hall? Figures are what the bees want—not whitewash and we have a growing suspicion that our hero apiarist is going to experience a terrible stinging on November 6th because in our experience with bees we have found that they have had fellows to play with.

Admits Criticism.
The first paragraph of the campaign manager's statement says, "In some quarters of the county, here and there," (covers a whole lot of territory you will notice) "a citizen of the county is heard to criticize District Attorney Welch for the employment of extra council in the prosecution of murder cases." Then follows a lengthy statement containing many things that may not be called untruthful but to say the least are truths twisted. The campaign manager says that the District Attorney has no voice in this matter other than that he is consulted on who is to be appointed. Be it said here that it is not mandatory on the District Attorney to appoint an assistant or assistants to aid in preparation and trial of murder cases.

He has authority, under the law, to appoint an assistant but with the approval of the Court. The campaign manager would have us believe that the assistant is foisted upon the District Attorney by law. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The District Attorney positively must request assistance in each case before it is given him. And it naturally follows that the court is going to grant the request when the District Attorney, by request for assistance, indicates his inability to handle the case.

Phantoms In The Night.
Sensing the howl of outrage from the taxpayers of the County the campaign manager had several uneasy nights. The phantom of taxpayers besieging the county treasury "watch-dog" got on his nerves. He must do something to ease the cry. He did the right thing. He admitted it all and set up an alibi which the figures on the front page will cause to fall apart, much in the same manner as our childhood friend Humpty-Dumpty and you know the sequel to that story.

Attempts Justification.
After admitting that there was criticism and that all the extra expense was incurred the campaign manager seeks to justify the expenses by wailing "they did it before, why shouldn't he do it?" Could anything be a larger excuse. It is the same excuse now used by the slacker. He says "I'll go when so and so goes." Another thing this campaign manager would have us believe is that every good criminal lawyer Clearfield County has ever had gained his ability and reputation thru jobs handed him at County expense.

Show Us The Law.
District Attorney Welch, we are told, saved the county $3000 per year thru his failure to appoint two assistants by the year. The campaign manager forgets that these appointments could not have been made without the full approval of the Court. The fact that they were not appointed may rest with the present District Attorney or it may rest with the Court. In any event the present District Attorney might have made money for the taxpayers by appointing at least one assistant by the year instead of paying out nearly $5000 in miscellaneous fees for part time service. This is another instance where the campaign manager tells us that the District Attorney could have, without any other authority or approval, added more expense to the county. Why did he not cite the text of the law? He preferred to give us a "short" version of law. Remember This

In every instance where council was employed to assist the District Attorney it was employed by direct request of the District Attorney. In no other way could it be done. The law does not compel it. The Court cannot be blamed for it. Nor could any other expenses of additional help in the District Attorney's office be incurred except with the approval and consent of the District Attorney.

The Mead Case.
Here we have a double case against our District Attorney. On the one hand, an assistant was employed to fight an ordinary liquor case. Why could not the public prosecutor have attended to this matter himself? Was he not familiar with this phase of his work or did he not want to antagonize the liquor interests? On the other hand, why the compromise with the attorneys of the liquor interests and give all other indicted parties to the proceedings a whitewash?

KAISER CALLS TO COLORS MEN OF 47 AND OTHERS PREVIOUSLY HELD UNFIT

Copenhagen, Oct. 15.—Germany has extended military service to men 47 years of age and is calling up those who heretofore have escaped service on account of military unfitness.

The army already included a large number above the legal limit of 45 years, on the ground that although nobody above that age could be mobilized, yet no requirement existed for the discharge of a soldier reaching that age.

The new regulation calls to the colors all exemptions born after September 8, 1870.

STATE ASYLUM LOCATION IS APPROVED

Proposed Site Gets O. K. Prior to Opening of Charity Experts' Meet.

Johnstown, October 15.—Bromley Wharton, secretary of the State Board of Charities; Oliver P. Bohler, president of the Poor Directors' Association of Pennsylvania; and W. G. Theurer, treasurer of the latter association, this afternoon inspected the site of the proposed new state asylum near Blairsville, previous to the opening of the annual convention of the Association of Poor Directors and Charities and Corrections of Pennsylvania, which took place in the First Presbyterian Church this evening. Their report was a favorable one and they will have some recommendations to make relative to the location of the various buildings when they return to Harrisburg in the near future.

35 YEAR TERM FOR PIERSON IN KEET'S CASE

Marshfield, Mo., Oct. 15.—Claude Pierson tonight was found guilty of kidnapping baby Lloyd Keet of Springfield. He was sentenced to 35 years imprisonment.

Special Prosecutor Roscoe C. Patterson, closing for the state, declared the circumstances were conclusive that Pierson and others, yet to be tried, kidnapped the Keet baby.

Mrs. Keet wept during his graphic description of the infant's fate. Pierson remained unmoved.

"POISON PLOT" AT PRINCETON HELD FIGMENT

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—Military authorities are convinced that the suspected poison plot case, in which Samuel B. Livingston, a Princeton aviation student, is held, has been greatly exaggerated. The general court-martial, scheduled for today, has been indefinitely postponed and the Zanesville (O.) youth may soon be released.

"A thorough investigation by government agents has established absolutely no proof of the boy's intention to do any harm," Lieut. J. J. Livingston, the military prosecuting official, declared today. "While a small quantity of poisons were found in his trunk at Princeton, it developed that he had purchased it more than three years ago, and we have little reason to doubt that he intended to use it, as it was contended, for photographic purposes."

500 SHPS ARE TAKEN OVER BY AMERICA

Washington, October 15.—Approximately 500 American coastwise and ocean ships of 2,500 tons or over, were commandeered today by the government. Ships of the Great Lakes are not affected.

While the government control became effective today the ships will continue in the same traffic and under the same plans as heretofore, until they receive orders to the contrary.

Among public speakers the average rate of delivery is about 8,000 words per hour.

Why the Railroad Problem Is YOUR Problem!

The railroads of the United States transport a billion tons of freight annually—50 tons to a family. This freight represents the business activities of the nation.

It is therefore of the utmost importance to every family in the land that railroad facilities be ample to meet the burden of increasing commercial and military necessities.

Your prosperity is at stake.

The New York Central Lines

"America's Greatest Railway System"

In common with other railroads, must buy new cars and locomotives, build new tracks and terminals and in other ways expand their facilities in order to do their part in meeting the growing service demands.

You, the people, and the custodians of your savings—the banks, insurance companies, trust companies, etc.—will invest, and make possible the necessary expansions, only as rates and regulations permit the railroads to pay a return that will compare favorably with other investments available to you.

ISSUES EMPTY WORDED EXCUSE

According to stories emanating from Welch headquarters the taxpayers of the county are inquiring of the Welch campaign manager in regard to the expenses of the Office of District Attorney during the present term. According to the statement issued publicly last week no hard and fast figures were given the people in return for the information. They asked for bread and were given a stone.

The Progress has never made a profession of giving the Court House news but it does go in pretty strong for printing articles of public information and news in answer to inquiries. To satisfy the demand of the taxpayers who have been unable to get this information through the regular channels we have procured the following statement from the records at the Court House and present them, together with editorial comment on Page 2, for the information of our readers who have not yet made up their mind who to vote for next November 6th for District Attorney.

Following you will find a list of the cases in which additional attorneys for the Commonwealth have been employed at the request of the District Attorney. The spelling of the defendants names is probably incorrect, but it is the way the list appears on the records.

Commonwealth vs. Huff (second trial) 2 attorneys for Commonwealth	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Alick, 2 attorneys	$300.00
Commonwealth vs. Acritilla, 1 attorney	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Thom, 1 attorney	$300.00
Commonwealth vs. Specialas, 1 attorney	$100.00
Commonwealth vs. Cmo, 2 attorneys	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Hastin, 2 attorneys	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Mastman, 2 attorneys	$300.00
Commonwealth vs. Rappack, 1 attorney	$20.00
Commonwealth vs. Caw, 2 attorneys	$300.00
1915
Commonwealth vs. Palleritti, 1 attorney	$200.00
1916
Commonwealth vs. Allen & Williams, 1 attorney	$500.00
Commonwealth vs. Denney, 1 attorney	$400.00
Commonwealth vs. Kittanning Brewing Co., C. M. Mead Co., Joe Jackson and other defendants, W. C. Pentz Asst. District Attorney	$200.00

In this case the prosecutions were brought by County Detective Jeffries. The District Attorney employed W. C. Pentz, presumably because of Pentz's familiarity and ability in cases involving violation of liquor law. Mr. Pentz appeared at preliminary hearing at DuBois and all defendants were bound over to Court. After some time a proposition of settlement was offered by A. L. Cole, Attorney for all defendants. This proposition involved an acceptance of plea of guilty made by one Hyman Mayzie, a Jew who worked for some $60.00 a month for C. M. Mead Co., being one of their solicitors, who was also alleged to be connected with Joe Jackson of Weedville. The proposition was to accept the plea of guilty, suspend sentence over Mayzie, and a lump sum paid to the county, totaling some $1200.00 which included the costs, all other cases to be not pressed or marked settled. The matter was brought up in open court, and Mr. Pentz who had been appointed Asst. District Attorney by Welch strenuously objected to enter a nol pro in cases other than Mayzie. Welch overruled Pentz and agreed to settlement which was consummated.

Malcolm Cox Hears Thayer March Played by Crack Infantry Band

Writes Letter of Congratulations to Well Known Local Composer, Prof. H. Clark Thayer

Fort Sill, Oklahoma, October 10, 1917

Editor Clearfield Progress:

Dear Sir:—I ask space in your valuable paper for the following little article which will serve three purposes in one. First it will demonstrate how really small this great country of ours is, in that every section is kept in close touch with every other section by some such little thing or incident as this tale will unfold. Second, because Clearfield, the small, as compared with New York, Paris, London or Chicago, covers a great deal of territory. Third, because the incident to us was simply another illustration of the old story about the fellow who wanders far from the old home and friends and goes into ecstasies when he unexpectedly runs across even a dog from home.

Judge of my more than pleased surprise when I picked up the Lawton paper last week and cast my eagle eye over the following announcement:

Lawton people are to have an opportunity to hear the famous 134th Infantry band. Colonel Hosington has consented to allow the band to give a concert between 3 and 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the park at the court house.

The band, which is an organization of 30 pieces is directed by Chief Musician G. G. Beeson, and not only is famous as a musical organization but is noted for the large number of soloists it contains.

The following is the program which will be given Sunday afternoon:

LaFollette Wants Facts Before He Replies

Asks Senatorial Committee for Names of Witnesses in Case

Washington, Oct. 16.—Senator LaFollette today called upon the Senate sub-committee investigating his loyalty and peremptorily demanded that he be furnished with the full charges against him, the names of the unfriendly witnesses and the documents in support of the accusation. After delivering this message in the form of a letter which he handed to Chairman Pomerene, LaFollette said "Good morning" and left. The committee went into executive session.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Hearings in the LaFollette investigation were ended today. The Wisconsin Senator has refused to acknowledge his alleged disloyal statements made in St. Paul. Chairman Pomerene declared following an executive session, that the sub-committee would not hold any more hearings, considering the LaFollette expulsion but would get information from other sources including the state department. He will gather evidence and report it to the December session of Congress.

I at once carried the news to Austin, and we decided forthwith to invite all the fellows in our squad to the concert as a sort of theatre party or guard of honor for that program, or the—to us—major portion of it; that last number, if you have not already tumbled

The 134th Regiment Band was formerly the Missouri National Guard and is a crackjack and it was a pleasure to listen to it and the home associations of Prof. Thayer's "Battery Park March" made the closing number the piece de resistance of the afternoon.

Please tender our congratulations to Prof. Thayer, because we want him to know that he put Clearfield on the map out here and that Austin and myself took a great deal of satisfaction in saying to all the boys, "That piece was written by a man I know well, why he's from my home town; sure, Battery Park March, by Prof. H. Clark Thayer." It brought old Clearfield right there on the green.

Austin and myself are still together, and intend to stick till all is over. We leave Fort Sill before November 1st. Where we go we know not, but we are very anxious to go at that, and trust to luck.

Sincerely yours,

Somewhere in France, September 20, 1917

Dear Mother and All:

I am still living and well and have just about completed my journey. I have enjoyed my trip fine and never was sea sick a day.

How is everyone at home? We are safe at last. We can see land and everybody is crazy to get off the boat.

I would liked to have seen you before I left, but it was impossible. I expect to be back in a few months, so please don't worry about me, for I am alright. Did you receive the picture and money? I have signed an allotment of $20 a month to be sent to you. Has my Liberty Loan bond been sent home from Akron, O., yet? If not please hunt it up. Write for it at the Akron Savings and Trust Co.

I suppose you thought I was never going to write but I wrote as soon as I could. I will write again in a few days when I get my bearings. Has any one been called to colors around home? We are in the fort now.

You can address my mail to The American Expeditionary Force, via New York, Co. K, 23rd Inf.

I will write every week and want you to do the same. Will close for this time with love to all.

The major part of the yards were saved.

Illinois Miners Go Out For Wage Increase

Many Large Mines Idle And Government Will Have to Interfere

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 16.—Without the sanction of the state officers and against the wishes of the United States government several thousand miners in the central and southern Illinois districts today walked out because the fuel administrator at Washington had thus far failed to increase the wages of the miners in connection with the increase in the operators' price. Just how many are included in this and the southern district operators could not state, but reports from the local operators association are that twelve large mines are idle in this district and approximately the same amount in the southern district are closed.

Easily Swamped Boys From City Of Altoona by Superior Playing

C. H. S. gave a fine exhibition of clean football on Saturday afternoon when they met Altoona at the Driving Park. Because of scholastic standing several of the players were not in the game but had they been in their regular places there is little doubt that the score would have been a repetition of the Ridgway game.

School authorities are insisting more than ever that the scholastic standing of the players be up to standard because they believe that the success of athletics depends upon this corner stone. A brief review of schools who have not done this gives conclusive evidence that in the course of a few years they will be eliminated from the athletic map.

The members of the team are to be congratulated on the clean game they played. The visiting team outweighed our men five to ten pounds but the speed of our interference baffled the size of the visitors. The Altoona boys, however, showed plenty of persistence, snap and straight football. Those deserving special mention from Altoona are Captain Saunders, Crowley, Kelly and Mortgart. Among the stars of C. H. S. were Pooler, Robinson, Boag, Dunn, Cochrane, Dufton and Collins.

The next game will be played next Saturday at Clearfield when Lock Haven Normal team visits here and the game will be started at 2:30 sharp.

BELL COMPANY SUBSCRIBES

The American Telephone & Telegraph Company and its Associated Companies, forming the Bell System, announce a subscription, in behalf of themselves and their employees, for $5,000,000 of the Second Liberty Loan. This subscription is to be allotted to localities, or sections of the country, as nearly as may be, in proportion to the quotas assigned by the Treasury Department to the various Federal Reserve Districts, so that each such District will get credit for its proportionate share of the total sum. The actual subscription will be made in each locality by the Associated Company operation in such locality.

There is also announced the adoption of a plan whereby employees of the companies above mentioned may purchase Liberty Bonds through those companies, paying for them in weekly or monthly installments, by deductions from pay.

DUBOIS MEN STRIKE GAS

Sykesville, Oct. 15.—A 100,000 foot daily gas producing well has just been drilled in here by the Sykesville-DuBois Oil & Gas Co. It is now being tubed that the gas supply may be turned into the lines, which are located but a short distance from the well, within a very few days.

This is the second well to be brought in by this concern during the present summer, and the members of the firm are congratulating themselves that none of their efforts thus far have been failures. The new well is by no means as good a producer as the one which came in four months ago which is now making about 600,000 feet daily, but the capacity of the two wells combined is such that the town of Sykesville need have no fear of a gas shortage for a long time to come.

Amsterdam, Oct. 16.—A sensation has been created in Germany and Austria because of an attack by Austrian Foreign Minister Czernin on Chancellor Michaelis, according to a dispatch to the Deutsche Zeitung today. The dispatch declared that Czernin had asked Michaelis to state German peace terms urging concessions in the west. Michaelis' reply was vague. Whereupon Czernin declared it was "futile to negotiate with Michaelis further inasmuch as clearness of expression and frankness are most essential." A heated discussion had been aroused by the attack in political circles in the Teuton countries.

"The Guilty Flee Where No Man Pursueth" Explains Statement

Welch Campaign Manager Puts Out Empty Words In Answer to Demand For Court House News

Last week one day District Attorney Welch's campaign manager acknowledged having heard from several parts of the county from taxpayers who were interested in some phases of Court House news in addition to that transpiring in the Commissioner's Office. In fact he had heard so much that he deemed it wise at that time to attempt to forestall any further criticism by a verbal whitewash of the business of the Office of District Attorney. Yesterday the laboriously written statement, excuse, explanation or whatever we might call it, came to our attention and we rather thought that the busy campaign manager was "seeing things" or that he "saw handwriting on the wall" and realized that sooner or later he would have to do some explaining to Mr. Taxpayer who he would have believed that the only place of iniquity in the Court House is in the Commissioner's Office.

A Bee Hiving Game.
The erstwhile campaign manager sought to handle this campaign much in the same manner that an apiarist hives a swarm of bees. "In this little game let the voters take the place of the bees," said he. "I as campaign manager will be the apiarist and when I start beating my pans and making the noise on the Commissioner's side of the Court House, the bees will be attracted to that side of the hive and a bee will be allowed to get a look in at the honeycomb on the other side of the hall." The game started about a year ago. There has been much beating of pans and other forms of noise and a few bees have followed the apiarist but now they have started to wander away from the hive and from different parts of the county they are buzzing in the campaign manager's ears the natural query, Why not look into Court House matters on the other side of the hall? Figures are what the bees want—not whitewash and we have a growing suspicion that our hero apiarist is going to experience a terrible stinging on November 6th because in our experience with bees we have found that they have had fellows to play with.

Admits Criticism.
The first paragraph of the campaign manager's statement says, "In some quarters of the county, here and there," (covers a whole lot of territory you will notice) "a citizen of the county is heard to criticize District Attorney Welch for the employment of extra council in the prosecution of murder cases." Then follows a lengthy statement containing many things that may not be called untruthful but to say the least are truths twisted. The campaign manager says that the District Attorney has no voice in this matter other than that he is consulted on who is to be appointed. Be it said here that it is not mandatory on the District Attorney to appoint an assistant or assistants to aid in preparation and trial of murder cases.

He has authority, under the law, to appoint an assistant but with the approval of the Court. The campaign manager would have us believe that the assistant is foisted upon the District Attorney by law. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The District Attorney positively must request assistance in each case before it is given him. And it naturally follows that the court is going to grant the request when the District Attorney, by request for assistance, indicates his inability to handle the case.

Phantoms In The Night.
Sensing the howl of outrage from the taxpayers of the County the campaign manager had several uneasy nights. The phantom of taxpayers besieging the county treasury "watch-dog" got on his nerves. He must do something to ease the cry. He did the right thing. He admitted it all and set up an alibi which the figures on the front page will cause to fall apart, much in the same manner as our childhood friend Humpty-Dumpty and you know the sequel to that story.

Attempts Justification.
After admitting that there was criticism and that all the extra expense was incurred the campaign manager seeks to justify the expenses by wailing "they did it before, why shouldn't he do it?" Could anything be a larger excuse. It is the same excuse now used by the slacker. He says "I'll go when so and so goes." Another thing this campaign manager would have us believe is that every good criminal lawyer Clearfield County has ever had gained his ability and reputation thru jobs handed him at County expense.

Show Us The Law.
District Attorney Welch, we are told, saved the county $3000 per year thru his failure to appoint two assistants by the year. The campaign manager forgets that these appointments could not have been made without the full approval of the Court. The fact that they were not appointed may rest with the present District Attorney or it may rest with the Court. In any event the present District Attorney might have made money for the taxpayers by appointing at least one assistant by the year instead of paying out nearly $5000 in miscellaneous fees for part time service. This is another instance where the campaign manager tells us that the District Attorney could have, without any other authority or approval, added more expense to the county. Why did he not cite the text of the law? He preferred to give us a "short" version of law. Remember This

In every instance where council was employed to assist the District Attorney it was employed by direct request of the District Attorney. In no other way could it be done. The law does not compel it. The Court cannot be blamed for it. Nor could any other expenses of additional help in the District Attorney's office be incurred except with the approval and consent of the District Attorney.

The Mead Case.
Here we have a double case against our District Attorney. On the one hand, an assistant was employed to fight an ordinary liquor case. Why could not the public prosecutor have attended to this matter himself? Was he not familiar with this phase of his work or did he not want to antagonize the liquor interests? On the other hand, why the compromise with the attorneys of the liquor interests and give all other indicted parties to the proceedings a whitewash?

KAISER CALLS TO COLORS MEN OF 47 AND OTHERS PREVIOUSLY HELD UNFIT

Copenhagen, Oct. 15.—Germany has extended military service to men 47 years of age and is calling up those who heretofore have escaped service on account of military unfitness.

The army already included a large number above the legal limit of 45 years, on the ground that although nobody above that age could be mobilized, yet no requirement existed for the discharge of a soldier reaching that age.

The new regulation calls to the colors all exemptions born after September 8, 1870.

STATE ASYLUM LOCATION IS APPROVED

Proposed Site Gets O. K. Prior to Opening of Charity Experts' Meet.

Johnstown, October 15.—Bromley Wharton, secretary of the State Board of Charities; Oliver P. Bohler, president of the Poor Directors' Association of Pennsylvania; and W. G. Theurer, treasurer of the latter association, this afternoon inspected the site of the proposed new state asylum near Blairsville, previous to the opening of the annual convention of the Association of Poor Directors and Charities and Corrections of Pennsylvania, which took place in the First Presbyterian Church this evening. Their report was a favorable one and they will have some recommendations to make relative to the location of the various buildings when they return to Harrisburg in the near future.

35 YEAR TERM FOR PIERSON IN KEET'S CASE

Marshfield, Mo., Oct. 15.—Claude Pierson tonight was found guilty of kidnapping baby Lloyd Keet of Springfield. He was sentenced to 35 years imprisonment.

Special Prosecutor Roscoe C. Patterson, closing for the state, declared the circumstances were conclusive that Pierson and others, yet to be tried, kidnapped the Keet baby.

Mrs. Keet wept during his graphic description of the infant's fate. Pierson remained unmoved.

"POISON PLOT" AT PRINCETON HELD FIGMENT

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—Military authorities are convinced that the suspected poison plot case, in which Samuel B. Livingston, a Princeton aviation student, is held, has been greatly exaggerated. The general court-martial, scheduled for today, has been indefinitely postponed and the Zanesville (O.) youth may soon be released.

"A thorough investigation by government agents has established absolutely no proof of the boy's intention to do any harm," Lieut. J. J. Livingston, the military prosecuting official, declared today. "While a small quantity of poisons were found in his trunk at Princeton, it developed that he had purchased it more than three years ago, and we have little reason to doubt that he intended to use it, as it was contended, for photographic purposes."

500 SHPS ARE TAKEN OVER BY AMERICA

Washington, October 15.—Approximately 500 American coastwise and ocean ships of 2,500 tons or over, were commandeered today by the government. Ships of the Great Lakes are not affected.

While the government control became effective today the ships will continue in the same traffic and under the same plans as heretofore, until they receive orders to the contrary.

Why the Railroad Problem Is YOUR Problem!

The railroads of the United States transport a billion tons of freight annually—50 tons to a family. This freight represents the business activities of the nation.

It is therefore of the utmost importance to every family in the land that railroad facilities be ample to meet the burden of increasing commercial and military necessities.

Your prosperity is at stake.

The New York Central Lines

"America's Greatest Railway System"

In common with other railroads, must buy new cars and locomotives, build new tracks and terminals and in other ways expand their facilities in order to do their part in meeting the growing service demands.

You, the people, and the custodians of your savings—the banks, insurance companies, trust companies, etc.—will invest, and make possible the necessary expansions, only as rates and regulations permit the railroads to pay a return that will compare favorably with other investments available to you.

"Gossard" and "Royal Worcester" Corset Week

The New Fall Models Are Here

What to Think of When Selecting A Corset

A corset can be closely likened to shoes: no matter how good looking or how stylish, if they are not comfortable, you might as well throw them out before you permit a possibility of endangering your health.

First, you must decide—that is, with the aid of an expert corsetiere—whether you require a low or high bust model, short or long skirt, and the type of corset that will best conform with your figure. The boning also should vary; if very slender, little boning is required; if stoutly-inclined, you must be prepared for heavier boning—especially at the abdomen.

As to the quality of corset you select, inasmuch as our price range is very broad, there need be no worry on that score.

New Gossard corsets from $2.00 to $12.50
Grecian Treco from $3.00 to $5.00
New Royal Worcester corsets from $1.00 to $5.00
Miller corsets from 59c to $1.00

Miss Smith who is our expert corsetiere is always glad to help and give you the best of advice at any time. Besides, our corsets are chosen by our corsetiere. No doubt that is why we have so many satisfied buyers.

A Corset for the Growing Girl From $1.00 to $3.50

The growing girl should undoubtedly wear a properly fitted corset; it is one of the most important aids in developing her form so as to allow for healthy breathing and graceful bearing.
We have gathered several of the best models for girls from 12 to 17 years of age—each to fit some special and individual need.
Have garters for attaching to stockings; boned lightly to allow for full growth of hips.

Strongly Sewn Brassieres 50c

This price group includes several styles and trimmings. Of cambric or strongly woven batiste; reinforced under arms and close in front with hooks and eyes. Well boned and will launder exceptionally well.
